How Do You Guarantee These Placements?

Our approach to PR integrates artificial intelligence with a leading CRM platform to pitch hundreds of thousands of journalists at top outlets, all real time. We write all the content from scratch and get your approval prior to publication. In aggregate, our clients get millions of impressions each month and are based in over 90 countries representing countless industries. From Fortune 500s to startups, we've helped countless companies launch new products, elevate their brand and reimagine entire industries through powerful PR and communications strategies. That being said – all of our placements guaranteed, we only offer publications that we get with 100% certainty we placed on our end. We don't work with publications we can't guarantee.
